The Plaintiff, David Payne, proceeding pro se and in forma pauperis, brings this action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Plaintiff is a former inmate with the South Carolina Department of Corrections (SCDC), and seeks monetary damages because credit for the time he spent as a pretrial detainee was allegedly miscalculated such that he was allegedly imprisoned for longer than he should have been. Complaint, ECF No. 1 at 2-3.

By Order of the Court dated August 17, 2015, Plaintiff was given twenty-one (21) days to bring his Complaint into proper form by completing one summons form listing every Defendant named in this matter; completing, signing, and returning Forms USM-285 for all named Defendants;* and submitting fully completed, signed, and dated answers to the Court's special interrogatories. Plaintiff was specifically admonished that if he failed to provide the items specified within the period prescribed in the Order, the file would be forwarded to the assigned United States Magistrate Judge for a recommendation. See In Re: Procedures in Civil Actions Filed by Non-Prisoner Pro Se Litigants, No. 3:07-mc-5015-JFA.

*With his Complaint, Plaintiff provided a partially completed summons form which contained no address(es) for Defendant(s). It is unclear whether he is suing one or more than one entity. He also provided unsigned, incomplete Forms USM-285.

Plaintiff failed to provide the requested items by the proper form deadline, or to contact the Court in any way. As such, Plaintiff has failed to complete his proper form process and no Defendant has been served. Therefore, it is recommended that this case be dismissed, without prejudice, for failure of the Plaintiff to comply with this Court's Order or to properly prosecute his claims. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b); Davis v. Williams, 588 F.2d 69, 70 (4th Cir. 1978); Chandler Leasing Corp. v. Lopez, 669 F.2d 919, 920 (4th Cir. 1982); Ballard v. Carlson, 882 F.2d 93, 95 (4th Cir. 1989), cert. denied sub nom., Ballard v. Volunteers of Am., 493 U.S. 1084 (1990) [Magistrate judge's prior explicit warning that a recommendation of dismissal would result from the plaintiff failing to obey his order was proper grounds for the district court to dismiss suit when the plaintiff did not comply despite warning].

The Clerk shall mail this Report and Recommendation to Plaintiff at his last known address. If the Plaintiff notifies the Court within the time set forth for filing objections to this Report and Recommendation that he wishes to continue with this case and provides the items requested in the Court's Order dated August 17, 2015 (ECF No. 8), the Clerk is directed to vacate this Report and Recommendation and return this file to the undersigned for further handling. If, however, no objections are filed, the Clerk shall forward this Report and Recommendation to the District Judge for disposition. See Ballard, 882 F.2d at 95-96 [holding that district court's dismissal following an explicit and reasonable warning was not an abuse of discretion].
